Press release

After the Champ-de-Mars, in Port-Louis, at the beginning of the week, the Horse Racing Division team was present at Guy Desmarais training centre, in Floréal, this Friday morning, March 4.

The stipe and handicapper, Subramaniyam Mahender, and the stipe Deanthan Moodley were guided around to see the infrastructures and had talks with the Officer in charge, Kamal Bissembur, the staff and trainers present.

The Anti-doping Coordinator of the Horse Racing Division, David Labelle, also supervised the sampling of around thirty horses (out-of-competition tests) by the Chief Veterinarian of the Mauritius Turf Club Sports and Leisure, Marie-Claire Domaingue .

Afterwards, the stipes stopped by the QuantiLab laboratory for a visit of the installations and an instructive discussion with the Managing Director, Bertrand Baudot.
